COCHEU TAKES STAND TO TELL HOW CAPTORS GOT HIS $20,000 CHECK

Forced to Give It at Pistol's Point.

Theodore Cocheu of No. 143 Penn Street, Brooklyn, the seventy-eightyear-old customs inspector who says he gave a check for $20,000 last Friday to Lois Nichols and her son, Howard J. Nichols, of No. 367 Bridge Street, after having been held prisoner at the muzzle of a pistol from 2 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, took the stand in the Adams Street Court before Judge Walsh to-day to prosecute his alleged captors on a charge of extortion.

Mrs. Luiu Nichols, wife of Howard Nichols, and one of the defendants in the suit, was in court with her sixteen-months-old son, Victor, Cocheu testified she had taken no part in exterting the check from him, though it was his alleged relations with her that formed the basis of the threats her husband made upon him.

Cocheu admitted he had visited the Nichols home about fifteen times since Mrs. Lulu Nichola's marriage in 1917 but said it was always on invitation and to get Howard Nichols a job or to give Mrs. Nichols money to "help them along." He denied that Mrs. Lulu Nichols had warned him away from the house Feb. 28, "because her husband was at home," and said he never stayed there more than five or ten minutes.

Ffremen Say They Found Oil-Soaked Boards and Candles in Apartment After Blaze.

Adolph Leiter, a stableman, and his cay on a charge of arson by Magis-trate Barlow in the Yorkville Court cian." So said W. A. Varney. to-day. They were arrested early yesterday, after a fire, starting in their apartment on the ground floor of No 627 East Styteenth Street, had burned out the apartment and endangered the lives of more than a hundred people on the floors above.

When the firemen broke into the spartment, they say, they found ten holes had been cut in the floor and in each one was placed a barrel stave coaked in oil with a lighted candle on it. Leiter and his wife left the apartment at 9 o'clock Saturday night and four hours later the fire started. They returned just after it was extinguished and said they had been visiting friends in Brooklyn. Detectives found Leiter's right trouser leg was soaked with oil. It was
